1. POLICY STATEMENT

Bellbridge Primary School will establish and implement policies to assess and verify the suitability of teachers, staff and volunteers who will work with children including requiring all volunteers to provide evidence of their suitability. This evidence is generally a Working with Children Check (WWCC); however if a volunteer’s occupation exempts them from the requirement to also have a WWCC e.g. police officers, teachers, they must provide evidence to support their claim to an exemption.

In addition to a WWCC Bellbridge Primary School may also consider it necessary that a criminal record check is conducted through the Department. This may occur when possible offences are relevant to the duties of the volunteer, for example dishonesty offences, which are not part of the WWCC. The school covers the cost of the criminal record check.

2. POLICY PURPOSE

To ensure teachers, staff and volunteers of Bellbridge Primary School approved to work with children meet legal requirements.

3. IMPLEMENTATION

As part of the process for maintaining high standards of conduct and professionalism in the workplace, principals/managers of Bellbridge Primary School will ensure that the Department's procedures for criminal record checks are implemented.

It is the responsibility of the Bellbridge Primary School Council to ensure that only suitable and eligible persons are employed in the school. Prior to employing a person, the school council (or the principal if the school council has delegated its employment powers to the principal) must be satisfied that the person the required Suitability for Employment Checks.

Verification of a satisfactory criminal record is achieved by ensuring the employment of new employees and engagement of volunteers proceeds in accordance with Department of Education and Early Childhood Development policy (for Victorian Public Servants), and legislative obligations pursuant to the Working with Children Act 2005 (for school based non-teaching employees and volunteers), and to the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 Part 2.6 Victorian Institute of Teaching (for principals and teachers).
Bellbridge Primary School will adhere to the Department procedures for the conduct of criminal records checks for all school based and non-school based employees, including arrangements that allow for the acceptance of the criminal records check conducted by the Victorian Institute of Teaching and Working with Children Checks to meet the Department's pre-employment suitability for employment requirements.

3.1 Volunteering

3.1.1 Definition
A volunteer school worker is a person who without payment or reward voluntarily:
Engages in:
- school council functions
- any activity carried out for the welfare of a school, by the school council, any parents’ club or association or any other body organised to promote the welfare of the school work
- any activity carried out for the welfare of the school at the request of the principal or school council
- providing any assistance in the work of any school or kindergarten
- attending meetings in relation to government schools convened by any organisation which receives government financial support

3.1.2 Commencing volunteering
A volunteer can commence work in Bellbridge Primary School when they provide a receipt as proof they have applied for a WWC Check with the Department of Justice.

3.2 Working with Children Check

The WWC Check is a minimum checking standard set by the Working with Children Act 2005 for those who work with children, either on a paid or voluntary basis.

To be a volunteer at Bellbridge Primary School a Working with Children Card provided by the Department of Justice is required. This card is:
- valid for 5 years
- transferable between volunteer organisations
- free of charge for volunteers, but cannot be used for paid employment.

3.3 Maintaining the register

Upon receipt of verification (for example, a certified photocopy), the WWCC details will be updated on the school staff register and a copy kept on the staff member’s personnel file as per the Staff Registers policy and procedures.

Bellbridge Primary School will ensure suitable monitoring procedures are in place to ensure teachers, staff members and volunteers hold a valid WWC check card (or equivalent) at all times; at a minimum annually at the commencement of the academic year.

It is the responsibility of the teacher, staff member or volunteer to:
- provide the successful WWC check card (or equivalent) prior to commencement at Bellbridge Primary School
• notify the principal if there has been a relevant change in circumstances, for example, if they have been charged or found guilty of a new relevant offence.
• apply for a new WWC check (or equivalent) before their card expires.

3.4 Privacy

Bellbridge Primary School will apply privacy principles when collecting, using, retaining or disposing of personal or health information as per the Privacy Act 2005.
