We are learning to clarify unknown words.	We are learning about alliteration poems.	We are learning to understand place value.	We are learning how to reflect on my emotions.
Success Criteria	Success Criteria	Success Criteria	Success Criteria
I can identify words I don't know, and guess their meanings using clues from the text.	I can write an alliteration poem. I can publish my alliteration poem onto a PowerPoint slide, including pictures and backgrounds.	I can demonstrate my place value knowledge of a four-digit number.	I can identify and name my emotions and reasons for my feelings. I can identify 3 things that went well today.
Task	Task	Task	Task
Choose a book to read from home, Sunshine Online or the Reading Eggspress library. ACTIVITY: On paper or on your netbook using Word, write a list of at least 5 words you don't know the meaning. Next to each word, write your prediction for what you think the word might mean. Then... Read for 30 minutes.	EXPLANATION: Alliteration poems use words that begin with the same letter each time. Not every word has to start with the same letter Here is an example below.  Graceful as a dancer, Twirling through the sky. Turning, tumbling, twisting, Gently floating by. Silent as a church mouse, Gliding on the breeze. Falling, floating, flying, Drifting through the trees.  ACTIVITY: Create your own alliteration poem using a topic of your choice. Then publish your alliteration poem using PowerPoint (one slide only), including a picture. Change your font and background. *See below for activity option without netbooks.	ACTIVITY: Complete the Number of the Day – Four digits activity (attached below). When finished, compete in the Sumdog competition.	ACTIVITY: Complete the Reflection Task Template (attached below) or respond to the following prompts on paper: Right now I am feeling... Why do you feel this way? What are three things that went well for you today? What are you most looking forward to tomorrow? Why?
Too hard?	Too hard?	Too hard?	Too hard?
Have a family member help you record the words you don't know the meaning of. Talk about what you think each word means.	Complete an acrostic poem using your name or the name of a family member.  The Witch Whizzing through the night sky In and out, she weaves through the clouds Tightly grasping her broomstick Casting her mystical spells Hiding in darkness  Topic word Descriptions 	Pick a three digit number and complete the following: What number comes before? What number comes after? Add 10 more. What is the number now? Take 10 away. What is the number now? Is it an odd or even number?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Draw your feelings. 2. Have each of your family members (including you) share three things that went well today. 3. Share what you're looking forward to tomorrow.

Too easy? After you have recorded your unknown word and predicted the meaning, look up the actual meaning of the word using a dictionary (or Google, if you need to) and record this too.	Too easy? Complete and publish a Limerick poem of your choice.  The Old Lady From Rome There was an old lady from Rome. ← The character Who never could find her way home. ← The situation She would walk down the street. ← Plot development Getting very sore feet. That silly old lady from Rome! ← Summary  	Too easy? Try the Number of the Day – Five digit template.	Too easy? Additional responses: How many minutes of exercise did you do today? How many hours of sleep did you have last night? Eating. __/10
Don't have _____?	Don't have a netbook?	Don't have printer?	Don't have _____?
N/A	Publish your alliteration poem on a piece of paper or in your book, ensuring you use colour to decorate it. Draw a matching picture and add a border.	Use the template as a guide and write the heading on paper then complete.	N/A
